

Your Wedding At

The Headfort Arms Hotel

Welcome...

The Headfort was once the town house of the Marquis of Headfort and dates back to the mid 1700's. It still retains that sense of regal charm & with the Duff Family at the helm for over 40 years it is a case of 'one family looks after another' on your Wedding day. Georgian in style, the ballroom boasts high ceilings, natural light, crystal chandeliers and a conservatory which leads onto beautiful outdoor space, the Headfort Garden, fully self contained and private to you, and your Wedding party for the most special day of your life. And when your celebrating is done, we have 45 bespoke bedrooms to rest your guests, Spa Rooms to refresh them and the best of 'Guaranteed Irish' food to enjoy whilst enjoying their stay.

The Headfort celebrates being the only Meath entry in the 'Top 100 Places to Stay in Ireland' by the coveted Mc Kenna Guides, who write; 'Family hotels, which were once the backbone of Irish hospitality, are scarce things today, and the hotel world has become one of the sharpest iterations of the corporate world. But if you want to see - and feel - exactly what an Irish, family run hotel is like then take the short journey from Dublin to Kells and park up at the Headfort Arms Hotel, a grand building in this pretty town. 'The staff are spontaneous, the welcome is real, the comfort is understated and the cooking is soulful. The people working here care about your welfare, care that you are having the best time they can create for you'

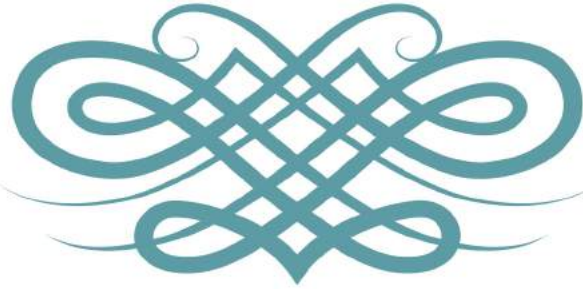

So we look forward to meeting you in person and planning the 'day of your life'
